Jenna Drey "All Out of Love" Billboard Review
Category: Music

DANCE

JENNA DREY
All Out of Love (3:18)
Producers: Giuseppe D., Kevin Churko
Writers: G. Russell, C. Davis
Publishers: Nottsongs/ Careers BMG, BMI Robbins Entertainment

Robbins has demonstrated marketing muscle time and again, most triumphantly via top 40 top 10 "Everytime We Touch" from Cascada. Its latest offering delivers a full-on uptempo camp version of Air Supply's 1980 No. 2 "All Out of Love," sung by dance diva and classically trained three-octave vocalist Jenna Drey. As always, a maelstrom of mixes are presented to enchant the masses; best is the unbridled Harris/Frangioni Radio Reprise, begging for dance radio play, while the ballad radio play, while the Candlelight mix could expose a new top 40 generation to the lovelorn lyric. Dancefloors are indulged with Giuseppe D.'s Full of Breaks Dance mix. As always, something for everyone. An "All-Out" guilty pleasure.—CT
